This year we are encouraging our church community to orient our lives around Scripture. We want to encourage you to read through the New Testament this year. It takes approximately five chapters per week to accomplish this task. Our “Daily Encounters” this year will give you each chapter to keep you on track to read the New Testament in a year. We encourage you to write questions or encouraging thoughts each week that remind you of the good news of Jesus and who you are because of what God has done.

Day One: Matthew 26

What does this chapter remind you about the character of God? Where do you see the message of “good news” in this chapter? How do these verses contradict a “lie” you often believe about yourself or God?

Day Two: Matthew 27

What does this chapter remind you about the character of God? Where do you see the message of “good news” in this chapter? How do these verses contradict a “lie” you often believe about yourself or God?

Day Three: Matthew 28

What does this chapter remind you about the character of God? Where do you see the message of “good news” in this chapter? How do these verses contradict a “lie” you often believe about yourself or God?

Day Four: Mark 1

What does this chapter remind you about the character of God? Where do you see the message of “good news” in this chapter? How do these verses contradict a “lie” you often believe about yourself or God?

Day Five: Mark 2

What does this chapter remind you about the character of God? Where do you see the message of “good news” in this chapter? How do these verses contradict a “lie” you often believe about yourself or God?

Why is this a rhythm?

Text: (Matthew 6)

Generosity is a lifestyle, not an event
(Proverbs 11:24-28)

Generosity affects today, and the yet to come
(1 Timothy 6:17-19)

Generosity teaches us to trust God, not ourselves
(2 Corinthians 9:6-8)
